

HARRY DURST IS HELD UPON FALSE PRETENSE CHARGE

Arrested For Disposing of Car Alleged Stolen—Recently Indicted By U. S.

Harry Durst, recently indicted at Indianapolis for violation of the federal prohibition act, was arrested by officers on the charges of obtaining money and goods under false pretense. Upon the posting of $500 bonds he was released.

Sentence has not been pronounced in the federal court in the liquor case Durst having pleaded guilty, according to dispatches from Indianapolis.

It is charged in the new complaint that Durst stole a Studebaker car in Chicago and drove it to this city, where he is alleged to have sold it Wednesday to persons living in this city for $850. Police officials say Durst may be held under a recently enacted federal statute against taking a stolen car over a state line.

Other deals said to have been committed by Durst occurred late last summer when it is alleged that he stole an Oakland car from Chicago and brought it to a garage in this city, trading it for a new Dixie Flyer and a cash consideration of about $700. Chicago officials traced the car to this city and attempted to apprehend Durst, who had been arrested some time after arriving in this city on a charge of obtaining money by false pretense, but at the time was released on bonds.

Mrs. F. W. Wise Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples On Head

"My head was full of pimples and they were even down on my forehead. They itched and burned and I scratched them and large scales formed. My head would at times itch till I could not sleep at night, and my hair became lifeless and broke off.

"I tried several remedies without success. I decided to try a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and later bought more. When I had used them about six months I was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Floyd W. Wise, R. 1, Shepard, Ohio.

Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally, prevent pimples or other eruptions. They are a pleasure to use as is also Cuticura Talcum, a fascinating fragrance for performing the skin.
